

---

SECTION: Administrative Organization

POLICY TOPIC: External Communication

---

The President, or designee, shall be the official representative of the College in communicating with all external organizations and agencies. No one else is authorized to officially speak on behalf of the College. The President shall develop and implement a comprehensive public relations policy in order to supply accurate and timely information about the College.