Third Annual Technology Leadership Conference

On Technology Innovation and Community
Collaboration

April 23-25 2007
San Juan College Little Theatre

From the Conference Hosts ...

Dr. Carol Spencer, President, San Juan College

"The understanding and use of technology has become a necessity in our lives. Today's professionals need to find opportunities to broaden their vision and find ways to use technology to enhance their worlds."

Tony Atkinson, Chairman, San Juan County Commission

"Technology serves as the most powerful key to the success of civilization. It controls the world in which we live and will always be the major means for creating new physical and human environments. On behalf of the San Juan County Commission, I thank you for participating in such an important and meaningful seminar."

Bill Standley, Mayor, City of Farmington

"Technology is the cornerstone of operating our businesses, as well as our personal lives. We can never stop learning how to better utilize all that is available to us. And security is vital to online privacy issues today more than ever.

Take advantage of this opportunity to learn more from the professionals — even one new idea will be worth your while!"
