

SECTION: San Juan College Board

POLICY TOPIC: Professional Development for Board Members

---

I. Professional Development for Board Members

San Juan College recognizes the importance of educating its Board members. Board members are encouraged and are given opportunities to participate in professional development activities designed to educate and to better enable each member to fulfill his/her Board-related duties.