

OLER-171 Canoeing 2 cr.
 This course will introduce students to canoeing on flatwater and white-water by covering the basic skills and safety techniques. Students will graduate to moving water and finally whitewater applications. This course is an American Canoe Association basic canoe course. Meets Physical Education activity requirement for AA degree. Semester Offered: Summer.

OLER-173 Rafting 2 cr.
 Students will acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to independently plan and carry out a successful rafting outing, with a focus on paddling. This course will prepare students to effectively paddle row class I to III whitewater. This course is an American Canoe Association basic paddle rafting course. Students will receive an ACA course completion card. Meets Physical Education activity requirement for AA degree. Semester Offered: Summer.

OLER-174 Oar Rafting 2 cr.
 Students will acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to independently plan and carry out a successful rafting outing, with a focus on rowing. This course will prepare students to effectively row Class I to III whitewater. This course is an American Canoe Association basic oar-rafting course. Students will receive an ACA course completion card. Meets Physical Education activity requirement for AA degree. Semester Offered: Summer.

OLER-175 Swiftwater Rescue 1 cr.
 This intensive course is designed to teach students the necessary skills and techniques involved with river rescue situations. Upon successful completion of this course, students will receive a nationally recognized card of completion as a Swiftwater Rescue Technician, and advanced certification provided by the American Canoe Association. Does not meet Physical Education activity requirement for AA degree. Semester Offered: Summer.

OLER-220 Challenge Course II (High) 3 cr.
 The course will begin with a brief review of the history, purpose, and application of experiential education and challenge courses before transitioning to specific activities involved with High Challenge Courses, including equipment, individual element description and safety, belay techniques, and rescue skills. Does not meet Physical Education activity requirement for AA degree. Semester Offered: Spring and Summer.

OLER-255 Wilderness First Responder 3 cr.
 For students who will be working with groups in the backcountry at a professional level. Course content will address the issues of long-term patient care, survival skills and backcountry rescue techniques. Upon successful completion, students will be certified as Wilderness First Responders and in CPR. Does not meet Physical Education activity requirement for AA degree. Semester Offered: Spring.

PHILOSOPHY

PHIL-110 Introduction to Philosophy 3 cr.
 A historical survey of the main branches of philosophy: metaphysics, theory of knowledge, ethics, and aesthetics. Some treatment of the philosophies of religion, language, science, political, and social philosophy. Prerequisites: APRD 80+ or ENGL 113; APEN 84+ or ENGL 111. Semester offered: Fall and Spring. [NM Common Course Number PHIL 1113, Area V: Humanities/Fine Arts Core]

PHIL-115 Introduction to Ethics 3 cr.
 The philosophical examination of the concept of morality and development of an appreciation for the difficulty of ethical judgments in practice. Prerequisites: APRD 80+ or ENGL 113; APEN 84+ or ENGL 111. Semester offered: Fall and Spring. [NM Common Course Number PHIL 2113, Area V: Humanities/Fine Arts Core]

PHIL-271 Navajo Philosophy 3 cr.
 Examines Diné philosophical thought regarding metaphysics, epistemology, aesthetics, ethics, religion, and traditional social structure. Offered in collaboration with Diné College (NIS 371). Prerequisite: ANTH 111. Semester offered: Spring, odd-numbered years.

PHOTOGRAPHY

PHOT-150 Basic Photography 3 cr.
 This course is designed for the beginning photography student. The students will learn camera operation, the interaction of light on film, design principles, lighting, film processing, and printing black and white photographs in the darkroom. An introduction to the history of photography will enable students to understand the context of photography and image creation.

PHOT-160 Digital Photography 3 cr.
 This course teaches basic digital editing using Photoshop CS2. Students will learn how to operate a digital camera, download images, basic editing workflow and printing. Color theory will be introduced and creating artistic visual images will be emphasized. Semester offered: Fall and Spring.

PHOT-220 Intermediate Photography 3 cr.
 This course will introduce fine art film and printing techniques using the Zone System. Different films, papers and developers will be explored. The process of interpreting, evaluating and theorizing photographs will be discussed. Presentation methods will be explored and an emphasis will be on creating a strong portfolio of images. Prerequisite: PHOT 150. Semester Offered: Fall and Spring.

PHOT-252 Advanced Photography 3 cr.
 Advanced concepts of photography will be explored resulting in the development of a personal portfolio of images. Prerequisite: PHOT 220. Semester offered: On demand.

PHOT-280 Cooperative Education 1-9 cr.
 Cooperative Education is a planned instructional program designed to enhance the student's learning experience by coordinating actual on-the-job training related to his/her curriculum with classroom work. The student will be evaluated jointly by the college personnel and employer. Semester offered: On Demand.