

CAMPUSES

Farmington Campus

4601 College Boulevard, 505-326-3311

San Juan College is one of the finest and most advanced community colleges in the state. The beautifully landscaped main campus is located on the north side of Farmington. The College's facilities have grown significantly over the years, consisting of 15 buildings and five off-campus facilities occupying more than 978,000 square feet and representing a value of more than $196 million for buildings only.

The newest building is the Health Sciences Center, which includes training space for the College's programs in Surgical Technology, Emergency Medical Services, Medical Laboratory Technology, as well as a state-of-the-art Simulation Center for ICU, ER and nursing skills. Phase II of the Center is scheduled to be completed in the spring 2011.

San Juan College East

(505) 334-3831, extension 200

San Juan College East is located at 315 South Ash Street in the Aztec Family Center. Classes are held in Aztec, Bloomfield, and other eastern San Juan County locations. The East Campus offers registration and payment assistance for all credit and non-credit classes; free Adult Basic Education and GED preparation; credit courses; literacy/tutoring; computer lab; Accuplacer testing; and a variety of popular non-credit classes. There is computer access to the main campus library and its services.

San Juan College West

(505) 598-5897

San Juan College West is located at 69 County Road 6500 in Kirtland. Classes are also held in western San Juan County. The campus offers a variety of services, including registration and payment assistance; free Adult Basic Education and GED preparation; credit courses; literacy/tutoring; computer lab; Accuplacer testing; and a variety of non-credit classes. The campus provides library services for both students and the community and computer access to the main campus library.

30th Street Center

The 30th Street Center is located at 3539 E. 30th Street and houses some of the programs for the School of Energy, the Family Resource Center, Project Read, ABE/GED, English as a Second Language, Health Information Technology Program and University Programs.

Hutton Street Center

(505) 327-5705; (866) 426-1233

www.sanjuacollege.edu/energy

Located at 800 S. Hutton in Farmington, the Hutton Street Center houses part of the School of Energy, which offers training and credit coursework for the oil and gas industry. The School also offers education at the Quality Center for Business on the main campus and at various industry locations.

ADDITIONAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Center for Workforce Training

(505) 566-3501

www.sanjuacollege.edu/WorkforceTraining

The Center for Workforce Training provides customized training and related services to individuals, business, industries and public sector agencies. The Center operates under the auspices of the School of Energy.

Child and Family Development Center

(505) 566-3383

www.sanjuacollege.edu/CFDC

The San Juan College Child and Family Development Center is a laboratory school and provides quality early education and child care services to children ages six months through five years of age of students and employees of San Juan College.

Community Learning Center

(505) 566-3214

www.sanjuacollege.edu/CLC

The Community Learning Center provides educational, cultural, and recreational activities and services to students and community residents. Among these are continuing education short courses, non-credit courses, lectures, field trips, arts and crafts workshops, and dance and exercise.

Encore: The Senior College

(505) 566-3121

www.sanjuacollege.edu/encore

Encore is a program that offers educational opportunities of a scholarly nature to learners 50 years of age and older.

Health and Human Performance Center

(505) 566-3410

www.sanjuacollege.edu/hhpc

The Health and Human Performance Center provides the community with a comprehensive wellness program, which includes physical fitness, general health screenings, experience-based learning (both educational and recreational), relaxation, self-exploration, development and skill growth, and the pursuit of special interests.