Technology Leadership Conference 2006

April 17, 2006
San Juan College Little Theater

From the Conference Hosts ...

Dr. Carol Spencer, President, San Juan College

“The understanding and use of technology has become a necessity in our lives. Today’s professionals need to find opportunities to broaden their vision and find ways to use technology to enhance their worlds.”

Dr. James Henderson, Chairman, San Juan County Commission

“On behalf of San Juan County, it is my pleasure to welcome all participants to the Second Annual Conference. With the vast changes that are taking place in the convergence of technology and events, it is extremely important that entities within the county collaborate and work together to be sure our county is on the cutting edge of technology.”

Bill Standley, Mayor, City of Farmington

“Technology is the cornerstone of operating our businesses, as well as our personal lives. We can never stop learning how to better utilize all that is available to us. And SECURITY is vital to online privacy issues today, more than ever. Take advantage of this opportunity to learn more from the professionals — even one new idea will be worth your while!”
